

ENTER THE PHD

DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY

ARE YOU....

- Interested in Pursuing a Ph.D. in Psychology?
 - Including Clinical, Cognitive, Counseling, Developmental, Industrial/Organizational, Neuroscience, or Social
- Not sure how to make it happen?
- Interested in creating more diversity among psychologists and bringing the perspectives of diverse communities to improve the practice and research of psychology?

APPLY FOR THE SPRING 2022 WORKSHOP

ENTER THE PHD

April 8th, 2022

To apply, fill out this form: https://go.umd.edu/Enter_the_PhD

Deadline to Apply: January 28th, 2022

Questions: Email Dr. Nazish Salahuddin at nsalah@umd.edu

The workshop is geared toward current First-year and Second-year psychology majors and will answer questions such as:

- Why should I consider a doctoral degree (PhD) in psychology?
- What are the differences between a master's degree and a doctoral degree in psychology?
- What are the different career paths available to those who earn a PhD in psychology?
- What are the different research areas of psychology?
- What is life as a psychology graduate student really like?
- What steps can I start taking now to be a desirable candidate for psychology PhD programs?
- ...and any questions you have that are not on this list

This workshop is organized by the Department of Psychology's Diversity Committee as part of our effort to increase graduate study opportunities for students from groups that are underrepresented in the field of psychology.

We are especially interested in applicants who identify with historically underrepresented racial/ethnic minority groups and/or who are the first in their family to go to college.

However, all students who are committed to strengthening psychology by increasing diversity and inclusion in the field will receive serious consideration.